

A Tale of Two Millennials

A deep-dive into the Millennial generation reveals two distinct groups: Older Millennials and Younger Millennials. Their differences in age, values and family composition lead to different volunteerism rates.

Younger Millennials

Not married, have no children and do not own a home. (Tend to be under 30 years old).

Older Millennials

Married, a parent, or a homeowner. (Tend to be over 30 years old).

23%

Currently volunteering

46%

37%

Donate money to disaster relief

55%

18%

Donate time to disaster relief

31%

12%

Found a significant other through volunteering

36%

25%

Feel they are making a difference by volunteering

37%

Find volunteer opportunities in your area at NeighborhoodofGood.com[®]